PRESS RELEASE

DEATH OF THE MAYOR OF MAYEN, GERMANY

It is with sadness that Godalming Town Council heard the news that the Mayor of its German twin town Mayen died on Sunday 6 May 2012. Frau Veronika Fischer was elected Oberbürgermeisterin (Lord Mayor) of Mayen in 2008. Frau Fischer was 47 years old and leaves a husband and two children.

Speaking of Frau Fischer's death the Mayor of Godalming Councillor Steve Cosser said "I had the privilege of meeting Veronika Fischer in October last year and found her to be a charming woman. I am shocked by her premature death and have written to Mayen City Council assuring them that our thoughts and prayers go out to them, her family and everyone in Mayen at this sad time".
