Nappy Changing – An Equal Opportunity

The oft heard conversation “You’ll have to do it, there’s no changing facilities in the gents” should now be a thing of the past in Godalming & Farncombe. Having discovered when they took over the management of the public toilets that there were no baby changing facilities in any of the public toilets in the town, Godalming Town Councillors decided not only to provide baby changing facilities but to ensure that, by providing new facilities, nappy changing would be an equal opportunity activity in Godalming & Farncombe.

As a father of a young baby, Councillor Richard Wainwright said “I’m very pleased that Godalming Town Council have recognised that fathers also need access to hygienic baby changing facilities and have acted to correct this lack of provision in our public facilities”.
