

Supporting Our Community

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

ZADIE CAUDLE – HONORARY FREEWOMAN OF GODALMING

It is with immense sadness that Godalming Town Council announces the passing of Mrs Zadie Caudle, Honorary Freewomen of Godalming, aged 90 years, in the early hours of 28 February 2024 at her beloved home.

Zadie has been a stalwart supporter of the town over many years, initially with her husband Peter, and since his death has carried on their tradition of enabling the community to remain a beautiful place to live. To recognise Zadie's continued contribution to the town, she was made a Freewoman of Godalming in March 2019.

On behalf of Godalming Town Council, Mayor of Godalming Cllr Adam Duce said "It is with great sadness to hear of the passing of our Freewoman of Godalming, Zadie Caudle. What is so evident to see from all her work for the town is the community spirit that she embodied with her husband, Peter. The conviction to lead by example and invest in the infrastructure of the town to preserve its history but also anticipate its future needs is one that inspires me as the mayor and a local councillor."

Zadie's funeral will be held on Tuesday, 26 March at the Guildford Crematorium at 12.00 Noon followed by a reception in the Caudle Hall at the Wilfrid Noyce Centre.

The tribute page which gives full details, including how to watch the service remotely can be found here: <https://zadiecaudle.muchloved.com>

Zadie supported Godalming and was always aware that there were people less fortunate than her. It was her wish that any donations be made to the Godalming & Villages Community Store, which can be made via this link: <https://godalmingcommunitystore.org/financial-donations>

Ends

Editors Notes:

Attached please find Statement that has been approved by Zadie Caudle's estate.

For more information on this release or images, please contact: Town Clerk

Email: townclerk@godalming-tc.gov.uk

Tel: 01483 523075

Release Date: 4 March 2024

Follow us on:

