PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

Godalming Staycation 2018

Godalming Town Council is delighted to announce Godalming Staycation is returning for the 9th consecutive year. Staycation 2018 begins on Saturday, 4 August and runs to Sunday, 12 August.

Staycation is a week-long programme of activities and events generously provided by local businesses, community groups and many talented individuals who give of their skills, resources and time to offer Staycation activities to the residents of our community. Previous activities have included try your hand at a brass instrument, yoga, tennis, dancing, theatrical and musical workshops, hiking, cycling, cooking and flower arranging or visits to our superb museum and local historical sites.

Local businesses, groups or individuals who are interested in offering the community an opportunity to 'have a go' or to try their services or activity should visit www.godalming-tc.gov.uk/staycation to find out how they can join with the many others who have already experienced the benefits offered by Staycation.

The official programme will be available at www.godalming-tc.gov.uk/Staycation from early July.
