COMMUNITY BENEFITS FROM GODALMING TOWN COUNCIL GRANTS

Godalming Town Council offers differing levels of grant funding that local organisations can apply for. A General Grants Fund, a Community Grants Fund, a Carbon Reduction & Biodiversity Fund as well as Service Level Agreements.

In the latest round of grant funding Godalming Town Councillors granted, from the General Grants Fund, £3,100 to 1254 (Godalming) Squadron Air Training Corps to purchase a Sim-X Lightening Flight Simulator Computer, associated software, monitors and ancillary equipment to enhance opportunities for members of Godalming Air Cadets to gain a flying scholarship. The Squadron was also granted £1,920 for the purchase of “Bags of Character” to help the Air Training Corps and Army Cadets based at Hallam Road to become better citizens and future leaders.

Councillors also awarded The Wharf Nursery School £3,500 from the General Grants Fund to enable the re-starting of the ‘Stay and Play’ groups for young children aged 1-3 years old and their parents/carers.

Surrey Association for Visual Impairment received General Grant Fund support of £150 to support a centenary coffee morning for hearing and sight impaired clients in Godalming in June 2022.
