PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

MAYORAL CHARITY BENEFITS

Godalming Town Mayor, Cllr Adam Duce, is delighted to announce that he has raised a total of £2,228.01 for his mayoral charity, The Dan Eley Foundation, via street collections, a quiz night plus some donations, over the course of his year in office.

The Dan Eley Foundation is a charity whose objective is to help young people living in disadvantaged circumstances access educational opportunities, training, and other opportunities for self-development.

Cllr Adam Duce said "It has been a real pleasure raising funds for The Dan Eley Foundation during my civic year. The people of Godalming have been very generous and I would like to thank all those who attended my mayoral quiz back in October last year. Dan and Carolyn do such great work for the young people of the town and I wish the charity all the best for the future".

Dan Eley from The Dan Eley Foundation said "The Dan Eley Foundation would like to thank the Godalming Mayor for choosing us to be his charity of the year. Furthermore, to him and his team, for all their efforts put towards raising funds for our work locally. The £2,228 will be spent on clothes and equipment to enable students from low income families at local schools to undertake their DofE expeditions. Additionally, some funds will be put towards sponsoring four students to undertake vocational training at the Godalming skills training charity, Skillway."
