MAYOR'S QUIZ RAISES MONEY FOR GODALMING CHARITIES

Godalming Town Council is delighted to announce that the Mayor of Godalming, Councillor Nick Williams, raised £1,128.22 from a charity quiz night held on Friday, 15 March 2019 at the Wilfrid Noyce Centre in Godalming.

The money raised will be split between the Mayor's two charities, The Baden Hall in Farncombe and the Citizens' Advice Waverley in Godalming.

Mr Phil Davies, Chief Executive of Citizens' Advice Waverley said, "This is a wonderful result! Godalming Town Council have been friends and highly valued supporters to our charity for many years. We are truly grateful to the Mayor, Cllr Williams, for choosing us as one of his charities of the year. The money raised will ensure we are able to continue to provide our vital services this year to Godalming residents."
