

GODALMING TOWN COUNCIL

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

LIGHT UP YOUR CHRISTMAS IN GODALMING Saturday, 29 November 2014 10-6pm

The 2014 Godalming Christmas Festival and Lights switch-on is looking set to be a dazzling day full of fun and Christmas cheer!!!! Over 60 festive stalls will be situated throughout the town, plus visit Santa's magical grotto in the Wilfrid Noyce Centre where you can meet Father Christmas. New to the festival this year are the adorable Christmas Ponies - come and meet Molly Dolly and her friends and maybe even have a ride! Balloon modelling and stilt walking elves will be strolling around the town. The Dobby Horse Carousel is back and there is a packed program of live music and entertainment throughout the day with some fun surprises. Visit Church Street (featured in Cameron Diaz's film – The Holiday) for the traditional French market along with more stalls. Of course all of the town's delightful shops and hostelrys will be open and ready to welcome you as you start your Christmas in Godalming.

The Town will be illuminated as the dazzling icicle Christmas lights are switched on helped along by Eagle Radio's DJ Simon Rose and Panto Stars, Snow White and Prince Charming and, of course, Father Christmas. Stay with us for some traditional Christmas singing led by Godalming's Town Band. Light up your Christmas in Godalming!

Ends

For more information on this release or images please contact: Godalming Town Council Suzie Gortler, Projects Coordinator Tel: 07765 693746

Notes to Editors:

This is our annual Christmas Festival and Lights switch-on. The town lights are funded by Godalming Town Council and supported by Godalming Chamber of Commerce businesses. Suzie Gortler on 07765 693746 or projects@godalming-tc.gov.uk, or Godalming Town Council 01483 523575

Release Date: 18th November 2014