PRESS RELEASE

TOWN MAYOR'S AWARD FOR VOLUNTEERS 2016

Nominations are sought for the Mayor's Award for Volunteers 2016.

Do you know a volunteer who has made an outstanding contribution to the community of Godalming? Because nominations are now being sought for the Town Mayor's Award for Volunteers 2016. This award recognises local people carrying out voluntary service in Godalming/Farncombe for the benefit of the community and the town.

This will be the twelfth year this award has been issued and the current Town Mayor, Councillor Anne Bott, wishes to receive nominations for this year's award.

Speaking recently, Councillor Anne Bott said: "One of the things that has struck me so far in my mayoral year is the importance of our volunteers who serve the community with energy and commitment. Without such generosity in the giving up of their time, numerous groups and individuals would not be able to benefit such care and choice. It is, therefore, very important that we continue to recognise this increasingly important service to our community through these awards. I hope that we will receive many recommendations so that we have the opportunity to demonstrate our appreciation."

Successful recipients of the award will be presented with a framed certificate and a small token of gratitude. These will be presented at the Annual Town Meeting on Thursday, 14 April 2016 in the Council Chamber.

Anyone wishing to make a nomination should obtain a nomination form either from the Godalming Town Council website (www.godalming-tc.gov.uk/mayors-volunteer-award.htm) or by calling the Town Council offices on 01483 523575.
