

GODALMING TOWN COUNCIL

PRESS RELEASE

SPRING INTO GODALMING THIS EASTER

Saturday, 30 March (10 – 5pm) sees the return of the Godalming Easter Festival in Godalming High Street. The Easter festival was first introduced by Godalming Together Community Interest Company in 2011 and was funded by SEEDA (South East England Development Agency). Come and join in the fun and enjoy delicious street food, live entertainment and lots of interesting craft and gift stalls including Churros Con Chocolate (Spanish Donuts dipped in chocolate), a spring Lamb roast, Hog Roast, Paella, Caribbean Jerk Chicken with rice & peas and Thai food. Come and visit the Farmers' market producers and try their locally grown, produced food and of course no Spring festival is complete without Morris Dancing and Fleur De Lys will be performing.

Kiddies' Corner in Crown Court – will host an Easter Egg Trail, decorating Easter Cakes and face-painting. At 12.30pm and 2.30pm Professor Dumpling is back in Godalming with his Punch & Judy Show in Crown Court. All activities will move into the Wilfrid Noyce Centre in the event of inclement weather. Kiddies' Corner is run by Louise Thornton, Steve Mohabir from the Toy Box and Sindi Hammond, supported by materials kindly donated by Arty Crafty.

Gifts and crafts will be available from stalls as you stroll along the High Street, and in Church Street you will find an Easter Ale Festival at The Star Public House. Also in Church Street, come and meet some of the artists from Wey Arts & Crafts, resident in The Old Fire Station in Godalming, who will be showing some of their work.

The Mayor of Godalming, Councillor Liz Wheatley, said "We are delighted this festival was introduced in 2011 and it has gone from strength to strength. It is this and the other town festivals which help make our town so vibrant!"

The Yoohoo Bushbaby will be strolling around town (weather permitting) come down and say hello. GOLO will draw their monthly lottery result at 12.00 Noon at The Pepperpot followed by a rousing chorus from the Godalming Community Gospel Choir.
