TOWN MAYOR'S AWARD FOR VOLUNTEERS 2014

Nominations are sought for the Mayor's Award for Volunteers 2014.

Do you know a volunteer who has made an outstanding contribution to the community of Godalming? Because nominations are now being sought for the Town Mayor's Award for Volunteers 2014. This award recognises local people carrying out voluntary service in Godalming/Farncombe for the benefit of the community and the town.

This will be the tenth year this award has been issued and the current Town Mayor, Councillor Tom Martin, wishes to receive nominations for this year's award.

Speaking recently, Councillor Tom Martin said: "Throughout my Mayoral year I have seen so many great examples of amazing voluntary service in and around our town. Volunteers are so important to life in the town and help make Godalming the great place to live that it is. This is an opportunity for those volunteers to be thanked on behalf of the town and I am looking forward to receiving the nominations. "

Successful recipients of the award will be presented with a framed certificate and a small token of gratitude. These will be presented at the Annual Town Meeting on Thursday, 10 April 2014 in the Council Chamber.
