

GODALMING TOWN COUNCIL

PRESS RELEASE

SPRING INTO GODALMING EASTER FESTIVAL

Godalming Town Centre was bustling on Saturday, 19 April with visitors coming from near and far to Godalming's Spring Festival. The weather on Saturday was sunny and the Town Mayor of Godalming, Councillor Tom Martin said "The festival was another fantastic event in the town centre and I'm sure enjoyed by all; thanks to everyone who organised it and I'm looking forward to the next one".

John Taylor, President of the Godalming Chamber of Commerce and owner of Cornmeter said "What a fantastic day, considering all the road traffic problems etc., leading into Godalming, the footfall was amazing; a complete success and a big plus for Godalming!" Steve Mohabir from the Toybox said "150 children took part in the Easter Egg Trail and the BRIO Fest was busy all day long. Some stall holders recorded their best day ever."

The Festival is organised by Godalming Town Council and supported by the Godalming & District Chamber of Commerce.
