

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

FARNCOMBE CHRISTMAS LIGHTS SWITCH ON!

On Friday, 2 December at 5.00pm, Farncombe's residents are all invited to Farncombe Day Centre for the switching on of the village's Christmas lights. Flicking the switch will be the Mayor of Godalming, Councillor David Hunter helped by Sally Barker, 2014 finalist of The Voice.

In April 2014 Sally appeared in the final of the Voice UK. The prime time BBC TV programme saw Sally consistently championed by her mentor, Sir Tom Jones. Sir Tom told Sally when she sang "For me, it was just full of emotion, you swept me off my feet."

On the night, the Godalming Jazz Choir will entertain everyone and Santa and his sleigh will be in attendance too. The Natter Café will be selling mulled wine and refreshments will be served in the Farncombe Day Centre afterwards.

Sally will be performing later the same evening at the Farncombe Music Club, please visit www.julianlewrymusic.com for full details.

Ends

In case of query please contact:

Louise Goodfellow

Town Clerk: 01483 523575 townclerk@godalming-tc.gov.uk

Release Date: 25 November 2016