MAYOR'S MUSIC MIX CHARITY BAND NIGHT

In a departure from the norm, the Mayor of Godalming, Councillor David Hunter, is mixing it a little differently. David will be hosting his Music Mix Charity Band Night to be held on Saturday, 25 February 2017 in the Wilfrid Noyce Centre, Crown Court Car Park, Godalming, GU7 1DY. The event kicks off at 7.30pm with live music provided by The Nefarious Picaroons, Jonas and Jane and Backwoods Creek in their particular brand of Americana, Country and Stomped-Up Pop. The Mayor looks forward to seeing you all on the night for this amazing evening of foot-stomping music.

David has held several very successful fundraising events throughout his mayoral year raising funds for his nominated charity – Skillway, a small charity based in Godalming. Skillway's aim is to motivate and instil confidence in students between the ages of 14-16 in practical workshop skills who might otherwise find it hard to accept the academic environment of school.

Tickets are priced at £12.00 and are available from the Godalming Town Council offices (01483 523575), Record Corner, Pound Lane, Godalming or alternatively online from www.thenefariouspicaroons.co.uk – be quick, you don't want to miss out!
