

Senior Salaries

Local authorities are required to publish, under the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2015, the following information in regard to senior salaries:

- The number of employees whose remuneration in that year was at least £50,000 in brackets of £5,000;
- Details of remuneration and job title of certain senior employees whose salary is at least £50,000;
- Employees whose salaries are £150,000 or more must be identified by name.

In addition to this requirement, local authorities must place a link on their website to this published data or place the data itself on their website, together with a list of responsibilities (e.g. the services and functions they are responsible for, budget held and number of staff reporting to them), details of bonuses and 'benefits in kind' received for all employees whose salary exceeds £50,000.

Senior Salaries at Godalming Town Council

No Town Council employee has remuneration of £50,000 or more.
