'FLIPPIN' COUNCIL'S PANCAKE RACE FUN

Shrove Tuesday, which this year falls on Tuesday, 25 February will see Crown Court in Godalming hosting the Town Mayor's pancake races.

Godalming's nursery, infant and primary schools take part in the races with all participants receiving a certificate and a token; the winner of each race will receive a small prize and certificate presented by the Mayor.

The Mayor of Godalming, Councillor Penny Rivers said, "Pancake races have become a regular fixture in the Godalming year. It is just great to see and hear our school children having a flipping good time".

This year the races are again sponsored by The Charterhouse Club and Tim Ostle, Commercial Director at the Club said: "Once again Charterhouse Club is pleased to support this fantastic traditional event. It is always tremendous to see the youngsters from the local nursery, infant and junior schools come together and have so much fun."
