

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

TOWN MAYOR THANKS VOLUNTEERS

At this year's Annual Town Meeting, held on the 19 March 2026, the Mayor of Godalming, Cllr Bob Crooks, awarded seven hard-working volunteers for their service to the community by presenting them the Mayor's Volunteer Award.

The Mayor's Volunteer Award recognises the service to the community of the nominees for their outstanding contribution to others and has been running since 2005.

This year's recipients were Alison Connolly who volunteers for the Farncombe Day Centre; Nicki Farrington, who also volunteers for Farncombe Day Centre, Mike Clarke Snr who raises money for public benefit and the provision of 24/7 crisis support, Kevin Holcombe for his commitment to the Farncombe Cricket Club and Godalming Angling Society, Tom Martin for running and organising the Godalming Round Table's Santa Sleigh over the last 10 years, Julie Hedger for her service to Godalming Library and Binscombe Church Toddler Group and Jen Jupe for taking on the role of PTA Allotment Lead for the Moss Lane School Association. All were presented with framed certificates and an enamelled badge of the Godalming town crest; a small token of gratitude for their hard work and dedication.

Speaking recently, Councillor Bob Crooks said: "Last night at Godalming's Annual Town meeting we celebrated the work of many volunteers with awards that recognised their achievements and commitment to our community; demonstrating that this is a town where people turn up, get involved and support one another."

Ends

For more information on this release or images, please contact: Andy Jeffery

Email: townclerk@godalming-tc.gov.uk
Tel: 01483 523075
Release Date: 20 March 2026

Follow us on:

